Anti-rabic treatment. Poor Government servants. Conveyance.

Sir,

I am directed to say that the Governor General in Council has decided that a Government servant under his administrative control whose substantive pay does not exceed Rs.50/- a month and who is not admitted as an indoor patient at a hospital or Pasteur Institute for anti-rabic treatment, may be granted actual conveyance charges from his place of residence to a hospital or Institute and back, on the days he is required to attend the hospital privided that the medical officer, after taking into consideration the nature of his wound and the distance which he

he has to travel, certifies that the patient is unable to walk and requires a conveyance. The expenditure involved should be met from the sanctioned budget grant under contingencies of the office to which the Government servant concerned belongs.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Addl. Deputy Secretary.
